

Disclaimer / Terms of Use

ERIKS Aandrijftechniek Schoonhoven (hereinafter: EAT-S) appreciates your interest in our products and your visit to our website.

Access to and use of this website are subject to the following terms and conditions and all applicable laws. The information contained on this website is provided as is and has been prepared solely for the purpose of providing information about EAT-S and its operating companies.

This website has been compiled in good faith by EAT-S. However, no representation is made or warranty given, either express or implied, as to the completeness or accuracy of the information it contains. Information should always be verified before acting upon it. It must not be relied upon in connection with any investment decision.

In no event shall EAT-S or its operating companies be liable for any direct, indirect, consequential, punitive, special or incidental damages (including, without limitation, damages for loss of business, contract, revenue, data, information or business interruption) resulting from, arising out of or in connection with the use of, or inability to use this website or the content, even if EAT-S has been expressly advised of the possibility of such damages. EAT-S reserves the right to make changes or updates with respect to or in the content of the website or the format thereof at any time without notice. EAT-S reserves the right to terminate or restrict access to the website for any reason whatsoever at its sole discretion.

This website may provide links to other websites that are not under the control of EAT-S. EAT-S shall not be responsible in any way for the content of such other websites. EAT-S provides such links only as a convenience to the user of this website, and the inclusion of any link to any such websites does not imply endorsement by EAT-S of the content of such websites.

Copyright, intellectual and all other proprietary rights in the content (including but not limited to software, audio, video, text and photographs) rests with EAT-S or its licensors. All rights in the content not expressly granted herein are reserved. No rights of any kind are licensed or assigned or shall otherwise pass to persons accessing this information.

Any material or information sent through or in connection with this website by you will be treated as non-confidential and non-proprietary, and immediately become the property of EAT-S.

EAT-S intends to give you as much control as possible over your personal information and to the importance that you feel comfortable in visiting the website.

EAT-S believes in protecting the privacy of the personal information you share with us. Sharing your personal information enables EAT-S to offer you a number of benefits. This will make it easier and more convenient for you to request information specific to your interests or receive personalized messages. Any personal information that you may give EAT-S including your e-mail address may be used in the following ways.

If you give EAT-S personal information in order to receive information in return from EAT-S - for instance Annual Reports or other information on EAT-S - we may collect and store that information.

That information enables EAT-S to fulfill your information request. EAT-S may also use such personal information provided by you for marketing and promotional purposes.

If you do not want this information to be used by EAT-S for these purposes, you can inform EAT-S about this by emailing your request to EAT-S (email: info.schoonhoven@eriks-at.nl). EAT-S will not willfully sell or provide your personal information to third parties who are not our operating companies or joint venture partners.

If you review or download information, EAT-S may track the visit through the use of "cookies". Cookies are pieces of information that a website transfers to an individual's hard drive for record-keeping purposes. The use of cookies is an industry standard, and you will find cookies at most major websites. Cookies help EAT-S to tailor information to your preferences and to see which areas of the website are frequented most. EAT-S never uses cookies to retrieve information from your computer that was not originally sent in a cookie. Most browsers are initially set to accept cookies. If you prefer, you can change your browser settings to refuse cookies. However, in so doing, you may not be able to fully utilize the website.
